QUARREL OVER WEDDING.

Seventeen-year-old Antoinette Alne is dying in a Brooklyn, N. Y., hospital and the police are searching for Pasquale Agnie, a young man of 20 years, to whom she was to have been married within a few weeks. The girl has a bullet wound in her abdomen, which, the physicians at the hospital say, cannot but prove fatal. They believe that the wound was self-inflicted, but the police are anxious to have Agnie tell what he knows of the circumstances leading up to the tragedy.

From information obtained at the girl's home after the shooting, it appears that there has been a serious misunderstanding between the young couple growing out of plans for their approaching wedding. Antoinette and her parents wanted a big public wedding with much ceremony. Agnie, however, told them he had no use for church weddings, that he would have none of it, and that he and Antoine te would be married quietly by a justice of the peace or not at all.

Antoinette grieved deeply over the denial of her wish to have a "great wedding," and it is believed that, in a fit of despondency, resulting from brooding over it, she fired the shot which probably will end her life.

WANTS THE STORK TO CALL.

The following letter was received at Central Park, N. Y., yesterday, addressed to "Mr. Stork:"

"My name is Anna Trainer, and I would like you very much to send me a nice little baby, for I like them very much. My friend, whose name is Hazel Corney, told me that she wrote a letter to you and a few days after she received a letter from you telling her that you would send the baby Christmas, or before Christmas. Well, Mr. Stork, my letter must come to a close, but don't forget to send each of us a baby no other time but this Christmas, December 25. Hazel said she did not get her baby yet, so don't forget to send them Christmas.

"P. S.—Write soon."

The letter was shown to Bill the Central Park stork. Bill put his head on one side and—three keepers will vouch for this—deliberately winked.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrœa Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

JUMP OVER PRECIPICE.

A flock of 152 sheep was destroyed under extraordinary circumstances on the Les Ecouges Mountain, near Grenoble, France, on Friday.

While the sheep were peacefully grazing a hare, pursued by two dogs, dashed in among them. The sheep were instantly seized with panic and rushed headlong towards the precipice called the Pas de la Cle, where they fell into a ravine 500 feet deep.

Some were caught on the branches of fir trees; others were dashed against the rocks, and few escaped.

The shepherds gave chase to the dogs, and found that they belonged to the mayor of Montaud. They are now claiming an indemnity of $1,000 from the mayor.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it today. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

BURIED TOGETHER.

Acting upon the dying request of his wife, Albert Dehick, 58 years old, a carpenter, committed suicide in New York Saturday.

His wife had died on Thursday night after a long illness, and when, in the morning, occupants of a neighboring flat smelled gas and broke down the door they found Dehick sitting on a chair in the kitchen with the end of a gas tube in his mouth. On the bed in the front room, covered by a sheet, lay the body of his wife. Both were dead.

A letter, addressed to the financial secretary of the lodge of the Knights of Honor, read:

"Adolph, and all of my friends: My poor wife died, with all her senses and without pain, in my arms at 11 o'clock. I obey what she asked. Please see that we are buried together."

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Fancy EVAPORATED PEACHES, APRICOTS and PEUNES for sale by J. C. MILBURN.

Mt. Vernon Violet Borated Talcum Powder, a 25c powder for 10c. E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21, 1908.

A FEW weeks ago when the question of the nomination for a second term of Governor Chas. E. Hughes was under consideration by President Roosevelt, those opposing and those endorsing another nomination were prominent among the pilgrims to Oyster Bay—of late years the summer capital. Observant people will recall that among the visitors was Mr. Silas McBee, editor of The Churchman, a New York publication. Whether or not Mr. McBee is a clergyman is something beyond our knowledge. Be that as it may it appears that Mr. McBee imagines he is delegated to not only instruct his northern readers as to things celestial, but to point out to southern people through the medium of the general press what they should do in order get the very best of things terrestial. A recent dispatch from Cincinnati referring to Mr. Taft says:

After an interview with Bishop Derrick, of the Ohio Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in which the entire negro political question was discussed, and a conference with Silas McBee, of New York, editor of The Churchman, Mr. Taft returned to the C. P. Taft residence to continue work on his speeches.

Of course we cannot assume that this was a joint conference; no surprise exists as to the negro bishop giving his advice to the candidate, as the negro churches have long been known as semi-political headquarters during presidential election years, but it is strange that the editor of an Episcopal church paper, referring to the fact that he is of southern birth, should thus exploit himself:

I am a North Carolinian by birth and a lifelong democrat. I shall vote for Mr. Taft because he has in his heart to bring my people of the south back into absolute union with the national life and to their historic place as a controlling force in the nation, and to do which would immortalize him as a statesman. I shall vote for him because he more nearly represents my ideals of government, of social order and economic policy than any living democrat or any man before the people today, save alone Theodore Roosevelt, who is the only republican president I have ever voted for. Mr. Taft has administered every trust committed to him by the nation with an eye single to the nation's good and for the highest interests of the people that compose the nation. The very permanent interest, industrial, commercial or economic has found and will find under his administration a sure protector, a judicial and judicious friend and guide.

Proud of himself as "a gusher" Mr. McBee no doubt thinks this all very fine and takes himself seriously. If it would not be deemed indecorous, and perhaps jar ears polite we would call it the acme of impudence and the veriest tommyrot. Political parsons are always the object of suspicion and the editor of The Churchman will be no exception to the rule. As he is a newspaper man he of course is familiar with that part of the republican platform that refers to the southern election laws, which was placed in it to keep the negro in line, and how all this, endorsed as it was in his speech of acceptance will have the effect, through Judge Taft's election, to "bring the people of the south back into absolute union with the national life and to their historic place as a controlling force in the nation, and to do which would immortalize him as a statesman," is something that Mr. McBee may understand, but, with regret, we confess our obtuseness is so monumental that we do not. This recalls the nursery rhyme, "Will you walk into my parlor said the spider to the fly." The south has had its full of such fairy tales.

THE anxiety manifested by the republicans as to the outcome of the election in November is becoming more pronounced every day. They seem to have no confidence in their leader, Frank H. Hitchcock, and his virtual deposition and the substitution of Senator Murray L. Crane as the real chairman of the committee is significant. They sorely miss such men as Zack Chandler, who possessed the industry of a beaver coupled with rare political ingenuity, and Mark Hanna, with barrels of money at his disposal and who knew where to place them to do the most good. At present the organization has neither political genius nor money upon which to rely. As was stated in yesterday's Gazette, the advisory committee of the party, realizing that its affairs are in a desperate condition, held a meeting a day or two ago at which Hitchcock was "placed upon the stand." To the queries propounded he practically admitted he was doing nothing to stem the rising tide of democracy and was far from being posted on current events and the true condition of his party. He, however, pretended to be optimistic as to the outcome of the election, and explained some of his plans which he is sure will result in Taft's election. "Well, where are you going to get the money to do this?" asked one of the members of the committee. "Oh, Mr. Sheldon will attend to that," responded Hitchcock turning towards the treasurer. "Indeed," retorted that gentleman. "I would like to know how you expect me to supply the needed funds when you have alienated practically everybody from whom we might expect any assistance." It was then developed that the total subscriptions to the campaign had up to that date been less than $100,000; that most of this had been spent; that contracts had been entered into for the expenditure of a great deal more; and that there were no definite assurances as to future contributions of any size. Hitchcock, it seemed, had made no effort to cultivate friendly relations with the bankers and big business men of the party in New York who have heretofore been liberal contributors towards the defraying of campaign expenses, and when they had called to see him had irritated them by making them wait hour after hour for an audience with him, and by maintaining an attitude of secrecy and mystery about his plans, as though their advice and assistance was not needed.

DISGUSTED by continued machine rule in the interest of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and angered by the nomination for governor of Congressman Lilley, the business men of Connecticut have started an independent movement to depose the state bosses and redeem the state from the control of corruptionists, which threatens the success of the republican state ticket and gives the democrats ample reason for believing that they will win their fight. The cry is still they come.

AT The Hague reports continue to conflict as to the condition of Queen Wilhelmina, some denying the previous statements that the hopes of an heir had been disappointed again. Much mystery still surrounds the royal personage.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, Sept. 21.

Baffled in their efforts to trace Geo. D. Ramsay, son of Admiral F. M. Ramsay, who has been missing for some time the local police have about come to the conclusion that he has committed suicide. The last heard of him was several days ago, when he took a boat for Norfolk. Thus far, the authorities of the Virginia city have failed to locate the young man.

The news of his brother's record-breaking flight at Le Mans acted like a stimulant upon Orville Wright, who yesterday felt very much depressed, and was reported as undergoing a slight relapse. Today the injured aviator is bright and cheerful. "Isn't it just splendid," he said. "I knew Wilbur could do it, and I am very glad he did it just at this time, as it shows that there is nothing faulty in our machines in principle." Alexander Graham Bell, President of the Aero Experimental Society, of which the late Lieutenant Selfridge was secretary, expressed the liveliest satisfaction over Wilbur Wright's achievement "It proves that the Wrights are conquerors of the air," he said.

To spread the propaganda of the fish culture, and to work in conjunction with the government's fisheries bureau, is the aim of the Fourth International Fisheries Congress, which began its sessions here today. Several hundred delegates are in attendance, and the session, of the organization will last through the remainder of the week. In his address of welcome, Secretary Straus praised the work of the Congress, and congratulated its members on their public zeal.

Leaving a note stating that fear of insanity had driven him to suicide, James Cogan, aged 63, was found dead in his room at 633 I street this morning, with a bullet through his head. The police have not yet found his relatives, and at the boarding house nothing is known of his place of residence.

Canadian fishermen are said to have been engaged the past summer in seal poaching in Alaskan waters, in direct violation of the provisions of the "closed season" agreement between the United States and Great Britain. Killing of cattle and frightening of natives by Japanese poachers are among the slight depredations reported.

Defending President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor on the ground of his constitutional right of free speech, Judge Alton B. Parker, today argued before Justice Clabaugh, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, against the relevancy of certain questions with reference to his responsibility for articles printed in the American Federationist. Counsel for the Bucks Stove and Range Company, in the case of contempt now pending against Gompers, had haled Gompers before the court because of his refusal to answer the questions propounded before the referee. Justice Clabaugh will decide whether Gompers should be compelled to answer tomorrow.

The national bank examiners who were so severely scored yesterday by Comptroller of the Currency Murray showed signs of agitation today when they assembled at the Treasury Department for their second day's lesson on how to detect any irregularities. The comptroller read them several lessons in the line of their duty.

The continuation of the cholera epidemic in Manila is viewed with undisguised apprehension by officers of the Navy Department. Although no decision has been reached to abandon the visit of the Atlantic fleet to that port on account of the scourge, the possibility of cutting Manila out of the itinerary is being seriously considered.

The President's Interference.

New York, Sept. 22.—Chairman Mack, commenting on Mr. Roosevelt's interference in the presidential campaign, today said: "It is very evident from Mr. Roosevelt's statement that both Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. Taft have been deposed and are no longer active factors in the campaign. Mr. Roosevelt practically repudiates both men. President Roosevelt is running the campaign. He is the entire republican national committee, the board of strategy, the advisory board and has placed himself in every other position where the 'big stick' methods rule."

The Judge declared this to be his first experience in disciplining a member of the bar, and further said that in all his years of practice he has never met with such conduct upon the part of an attorney. The fine was paid and an apology made to Judge Waddill.

Stephenson was victorious in that primary over two La Follette men, but La Follette backers charge that he spent more than half a million dollars. They want this expenditure of money probed.

Mack today addressed a letter to President Roosevelt in reference to a statement said to have been made by him to that effect. Killed by Insane Mulatto.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Seized with an attack of homicidal mania, Andrew Lightfoot, a mulatto patient at the government hospital for the insane, ran amuck early today, killed two persons and made his escape into the woods surrounding the institution, pursued by thirty of the guards. Lightfoot had been working about the grounds with a gang of other patients. Suddenly, and without warning, he grabbed a crow-bar and brought it down with terrible force upon the head of Patrick Maloney, one of the attendants, crushing his skull and killing him instantly. The frenzied man then darted for the gateway, encountering en route Margaret Fallon, another patient. Using the same weapon, Lightfoot struck her also over the head with fatal effect. Running at top speed, Lightfoot then escaped from the grounds. A hurried alarm was sounded, and quickly almost the entire available staff of guards was engaged in a man hunt in the woods.

[The police authorities of this city have been requested to keep a lookout for Lightfoot.]

LATER.

At noon, the posse had Lightfoot surrounded in a swamp and were closing in on him, with prospects of capturing him soon.

After a four hour hunt, Lightfoot was discovered. One of the posse shot him in the leg, and he was promptly overpowered and captured. He still had with him the steel crow-bar, with which he had killed his two victims early in the morning.

Will Reject Franco-Spanish Vote.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—A semi-official report from the German foreign office today is to the effect that Germany will reject the Franco-Spanish vote on Moroccan affairs on the grounds that France's claims for indemnity from Morocco amount to a practical mortgage and is in violation of the spirit of the Algeciras treaty. Recent peaceful utterances by the Kaiser had led to the belief that he was preparing to accept the note. Today's developments show this belief to be unfounded. All the other powers have signified their intention of accepting the Franco-Spanish note. Germany's opposition is such that it is believed she will withdraw from the list of signatories, unless the note is radically amended.

Bryan and Roosevelt.

Detroit, Sept. 22—William J. Bryan, the democratic candidate for president, has telegraphed President Roosevelt demanding that he prove his charges and that Chas. N. Haskell, treasurer of the democratic national committee, is connected with the Standard Oil Company and the Standard Oil is behind Mr. Bryan in the present campaign.

In his telegram Mr. Bryan said: "As the selection of Gov. Haskell as chairman of the committee on resolutions at Denver, and also as treasurer of the democratic national committee he has my approval and endorsement. I feel it my duty to demand an immediate investigation of a charge against him endorsed by the president of the United States.

"Your high position as well as your sense of justice, would prevent your giving sanction and circulation to such a charge without proof, and I respectfully request, therefore, that you furnish any proof which you have in your possession or if you have no proof I request that you indicate a method by which the truth may be ascertained.

"Without consulting Mr. Haskell, I will agree that he will appear for investigation before any tribunal, public or private, which you may indicate, and I will further agree that his connection with the national committee and with this campaign shall cease in the event that the decision of such tribunal connects him in any way with this charge, or in case, you, after an investigation of the facts, say that you believe him guilty of the charges made."

ROOSEVELT AND FORAKER.

At Oyster Bay late yesterday Secretary Loeb gave to representatives of the press a formal statement by the president, which was called forth by the recent exchanges between William R. Hearst and Senator Foraker, of Ohio. Mr. Hearst, in public utterances, had accused the senator of relations with the Standard Oil Company inconsistent with his duties as a senator and his attitude as a representative of republican policies and professions.

In yesterday's statement President Roosevelt makes another appeal for the support of Mr. Taft and declares that his defeat would bring "lasting satisfaction to but one set of men; namely, to those men who, as shown in the correspondence published by Mr. Hearst, were behind Mr. Foraker, the opponent of Mr. Taft within his own party, and who now are behind Governor Haskell and his associates, the opponents of Mr. Taft in the opposite party."

The president points out that Mr. Taft's attitude has always been directly opposed to that charged against Senator Foraker by Mr. Hearst regarding the moneyed interests.

The president has this to say of Senator Foraker:

Senator Foraker has resolutely opposed the great policies of internal reform.

Senator Foraker represents the force which bitterly fought the nomination of Mr. Taft.

There is but one way to perpetuate the great reform; that is by electing Mr. Taft.

His defeat will bring satisfaction to but one set of men—those who are behind Senator Foraker.

Mr. Taft's candidacy is based upon his great record of actual achievement.

Mr. Taft is a man pre-eminently fit in point of fearless and aggressive character to be president.

I appeal to all conscientious men who love their country to put Taft at its head.

The president has since made public a letter in which H. William Taft, before being nominated for the presidency, refused to make any compromise with Senator Foraker.

A LUCKY FIND.

E. J. Blankenship, a Bedford county farmer, went to Roanoke, Friday, and purchased a bundle of clothing at an "Old Hoss" sale of unclaimed packages, being conducted for the Norfolk and Western Railway Company.

Last night when he reached home and examined his purchase, he discovered ten 20-dollar gold pieces in a pocket of a pair of old corduroy trousers and five diamond rings in a pocket of a soiled vest. Blankenship paid $6.40 for the bundle.

HIGH LICENSE IN VIRGINIA.

Despite the manifold exactions of the yrd liquor law and the fact that a majority of the hundred counties in the state have altogether forbidden the sale of ardent spirits, the commonwealth will suffer a comparatively smaller loss in revenue this year than had been anticipated, because of the fact that licenses have been raised from $175 to $450.

Richmond will fare worse than other cities in the state, because of her restrictive ordinances cutting down the number of saloons to 150. The jump in the cost of licenses helped considerably to meet the vast deficit which would otherwise have been caused by the changed conditions. The commonwealth this year will lose $40,000. The above result is shown by the compilation of figures in the office of the auditor.

ORGANIZE CLUB.

More than 300 democrats assembled at the county courthouse last night for the purpose of organizing a Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club. Much interest was manifested. It was voted to send funds to the Ninth congressional district, which is republican, to aid in the defeat of C Bascomb Slemp, the present representative. Two hundred and fifty dollars was raised for this purpose. A committee of prominent democrats was appointed to entertain Gov. Swanson and Representative Charles C. Carlin on their visit to Alexandria county courthouse on September 30. Following the business meeting, addresses on the issues of the presidential campaign were delivered by R. C. L. Moncure, James E. Clements, Crandal Mackey, Walter U. Varney, A. B. Strickler, Col. Enoch Dowe, and Clarence Holliday. R. C. L. Moncure said a number of converts had been received into the democratic ranks in the last week. The organization elected R. C. L. Moncure president and R. Gordon Finney secretary. Curtis B. Graham presided.

FLYING ELLET FAMILY.

Other aerialists may have been seen and admired, but it is a freely acknowledged fact the Robbins shows have a veritable monopoly of the real artist gymnast of the entire American show world. First in any list would have to be mentioned the Ellets, the incarnation of grace and daring, whose flights through the lofty dome of the canvas pavilion covering the arena are done with the ease and abandon of birds. Kosters are known as the "Human Swallows," and are close seconds to the Potters, even surpassing them in strength and daring not so graceful, but then it must be remembered that two of the Ellets are of the gentler sex. The Lukens do a most dangerous act on aerial horizontal bars, fixed in the dome of the canvas, feats that but few men can do upon bars that may be reached from the ground. Only the features of this division of daring diversions are mentioned—and the cause is apparent to all who continue to read this all too brief tale of this towering giant of circuses. The Frank A. Robbins Shows will exhibit on the fair grounds on Thursday next.

TO REPAIR ROADWAY.

It is understood that there is a movement on foot among the parishioners of St. Mary's Church to improve the roadway leading to St. Mary's Cemetery at the southern end of Washington street. Several members of the church are interesting themselves in the repairs to the roadway and it is thought that most of those who have relatives and friends buried there will hold a meeting and exchange views as to the best way to proceed. Fairfax county comes in for a share of the improvements as also does the city of Alexandria. A first class macadam road would be welcomed by those who visit this silent resort.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There were but two cases before the court this morning:

Alice Reddicks, colored, who had been arrested last Saturday night charged with selling beer on Sunday and without a license, was arraigned. The evidence not being conclusive, the accused was dismissed on that charge, but fined $5 for disorderly conduct. She was represented by Mr. Robinson Moncure.

Jesse Pollard, colored, charged with cutting Lizzie Moore, also colored, was fined $10. The assault took place about two weeks ago.

ALEXANDRIAN PROMOTED.

Gales Holcomb, formerly city engineer of Alexandria has been promoted to the office of commissioner of public improvements in the Panama service at a salary of $7,500. Mr. Holcomb has signed a five years contract with the government at this salary. He has been filling the position of municipal engineer of Panama recently to the satisfaction of the government, and this is his reward.

INDICTED IN FAIRFAX.

George Powell, who, it will be remembered, was arrested by Constable A. J. Payne for selling liquors at a camp meeting at Franconia, Fairfax county, a short time ago, was brought before the grand jury in Fairfax C. H. yesterday and indicted on two counts—selling liquor to minors and without a license. The case will be heard at the next term of court.

OUT ON BOND.

Dr. Tebbs was indicted yesterday before the grand jury of Fairfax, who found a true bill against him. This case, it will be remembered, was of a complaint on the part of his conduct with children some time ago. He was placed under heavy bond for his appearance at the next term of court.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist Church was filled last evening with members of the church and those of other denominations to witness the recognition services tendered to Rev. W. F. Watson, who was recently called to the pastorate of the church. An interesting programme of exercises had been prepared, each number of which was well rendered. The addresses were earnest and appropriate. The music was animating and each feature of the exercises edifying. The programme opened by singing "Jehovah Reigns," by the choir, following which was invocation by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale. Scripture reading was conducted by Rev. J. R. Sevier, and prayer by Rev. G. I. Humphreys, following which Miss Kate Leef and Mr. B. Wheatley sang a duet, "Hark, Hark, My Soul." Deacon Adam Martin then welcomed the pastor on behalf of the church, Sunday school and church auxiliaries, following which the choir sang, "The Place of Prayer." Rev. Charles D. Bulls, of the M. E. Church South, delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the ministerial conference of this city, at the conclusion of which the choir sang, "Alas, and Did My Saviour Bleed." Judge C. E. Nicol then delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the Baptist Potomac Association, with which the church is connected, following which Mr. Isaac Smith sang, "Face to Face." Rev. C. P. Stealey, pastor of the West Washington Baptist Church, then delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the ministerial conference of Washington, followed by an anthem, "Rock of Ages" by the choir. Rev. Mr. Watson then responded to the several addresses of welcome in a most happy and pleasing manner. At this point in the programme a large bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Watson on behalf of the ladies of the church, which was graciously accepted. The evening's exercises were brought to a close by singing a hymn, and benediction by Rev. Edgar Carpenter. At the conclusion of the service a reception to the new pastor was held. Rev. Mr. Watson assumed charge of the church here the 1st of August and he has at every service preached to large congregations. He is a native of North Carolina and has successfully served several churches of his native state and also in this state. He was called from the South Street Church, of Portsmouth, to Alexandria, and is regarded as a scholarly and capable minister. The music for the occasion was under the direction of Mr. J. T. Preston, chairman of the committee on recognition service, and the accompanist was Mrs. D. Walter Bolton. Mr. Jas. R. Mansfield presided at the meeting. The church was beautifully decorated with potted and cut flowers and palms. Each number of the programme was well rendered, and the committee having in charge the recognition service deserve much praise for the successful manner in which the same was carried out.

BOAT OWNERS MEET.

For the purpose of arranging the details of another speed race between the fast boats "Kindo," owned by Mr. Will Moore, and the "Mae" owned by Mr. Bruce Emerson, on Saturday next, a meeting was held at Hotel Fleischmann last night between the owners of these boats and a select committee composed of Messrs. William Bryant, Cortland Acton and C. B. Marshall, composing a handicap committee. Since the race for the Elks' cup at Marshall Hall, on September 3d, in which the "Mae" was the winner, there have been several efforts to match the two boats on a 20-mile course, for a substantial purse. Both owners appear anxious to again try conclusions, but the question of a proper handicap seems to stand in the way, and it was this question that the above committee was appointed to determine, it being understood the contestants would be governed by the decision of the committee. Mr. Emerson maintained that his boat should be rated as a 20-mile boat, and that the "Kindo" should be rated at 23 miles, but Mr. Kelley, representing Mr. Moore, insisted on a rating of 20¾ miles for the Kindo, or a handicap of not over 2 minutes and 20 seconds in favor of the "Mae." Mr. Kelley was averse to allowing any more handicap than was allowed on September 3, claiming the owners of the Kindo did not know what speed their boat could make. On the figures submitted, however, it seemed to be the opinion that this was not the correct rating for the Kindo, and as Mr. Kelley was not willing to concede more than 20¾ miles rating, or a handicap of 2 minutes and 20 seconds, the meeting came to nought. It appears, from a close figuring, that the owners of the Kindo desired a reserve of 2½ miles in the 20 mile course. Mr. Emerson states this morning that he was, and still is, willing to abide by the decision of the committee that was appointed last night, whether their decision was for a handicap or not. It is understood that the keel boat race will come off next Saturday and that the owners will meet later this week to make definite arrangements. It is hoped that the speed boat owners can come to some agreement and enliven the occasion.

LETTER RECEIVED.

Messrs. R. D. Brumback, F. L. Smith and John H. Trimyer, the committee on speakers of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club of this city, have received a letter from Mr. Samuel Kelley, of Richmond, stating that he would be delighted to speak to the voters of this city. The committee propose to have a meeting on the 29th in this city and as that is the day preceding the big meeting in Alexandria county, when Senator John W. Daniel, Governor Claude A. Swanson and Congressman Carlin are advertised to speak, it is more than probable that either one of these distinguished speakers will stop off in this city that night of this meeting.

ROSEMONT.

One of the three new houses, for which ground will be broken this week in Rosemont, is to be built for Mr. Frank L. Slaymaker, who will make his home there as soon as the house is completed. Mr. Slaymaker has charge of the Alexandria sales of Rosemont, and is showing his faith in the future of the property by buying his home there himself.

FUNERALS.

The attendance upon the funeral of the late Carroll W. Ashby is said to have been among the largest ever seen in this city at a private funeral, friends from Alexandria, Washington and other sections all gathering to pay tribute to his memory and to show the affection in which he was so generally held. There was a large turnout of Masons, who, with an escort of fourteen members of Old Dominion Commandery, K. T., followed the remains to their last resting place in Ivy Hill Cemetery. The floral tributes were probably as numerous and as beautiful as were ever seen at a funeral in Alexandria and included pieces sent by the Shriners, the Masonic the general officers of the Southern Railway and from the various departments of that company, together with a large number sent by individual friends. The services at the grave were very impressive, the white apron, the glove and the acacia being deposited with the body just as the sun sank beneath the horizon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Kemp took place from the M. E. Church South this afternoon and was attended by many relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. C. D. Bulls, E. V. Regester and J. R. Sevier and the pallbearers were Messrs. J. E. Shinn, E. L. Risbeill, David Prettyman, Isaac B. Field, G. E. Warfield, F. J. Pollard, G. W. Keys and L. Woodward.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Rose A. LaCrosse, who died in Baltimore on Saturday last, took place in this city this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Watson. The deceased was a daughter of the late Joseph Grimes. She leaves a husband and three children.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Webster, wife of Mr. James F. Webster, took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Cutler. A large concourse of relatives and friends were in attendance.

CONTRIBUTION TO CHILDREN'S HOME.

[To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Dear Sir: Mr. Max Rosenfeld advertised recently in your paper that he would shortly make a contribution to one of our charitable institutions, in recognition of the generous patronage given him by the citizens of this city. I would be glad if you would mention in your paper that this firm has today turned over to me as treasurer of the Children's Home of this city $15.22, being 10 per cent. of his gross receipts on Saturday last. They also informed me that they contemplated doing the same thing, very shortly, for the Alexandria Hospital. Such generosity certainly deserves mention.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD M. GREEN, treasurer,
Children's Home Alexandria, Va.

DIED IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Miss Helen M. Burrill, fifty years old, of this city, employed as housekeeper in the family of W. M. Tyler, 44 Yale Avenue, Wakefield, Mass., was so severely burned by the explosion of an oil stove that she died yesterday. Mr. Tyler was ill and Miss Burrill started to carry a lighted oil stove to his room upstairs. Half way up the stairs the stove exploded. Miss Burrill was thrown backward to the floor and was covered with the burning oil. Mrs. Tyler smothered the flames with a hall rug and Miss Burrill, in a semi-conscious condition, was carried to the house of a neighbor.

RAISING MONEY.

There is always need for money in the management of a campaign and knowing this to be a fact Mr. J. Marriott Hill, the treasurer, accompanied by the president of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club, Mr. S. G. Brent are today testing the pulses of the Alexandria business men and others. Judging from the size of the paper in the hands of Mr. Hill, and the returns, it looks like the club will be able to pay the expenses accruing from an active canvass.

LEOPARDS FIGHT TO DEATH.

Nigger, a black female leopard, has been killed by her cage mate, the Devil, after a desperate battle in the lion house of the Bronx menagerie in New York. Hundreds of persons, including women and children, watched the combat. The keepers made vigorous efforts to separate the fighters, but could do nothing with the enraged animals

For a week or more the couple had not been on good terms, and Nigger carefully kept to her corner of the cage, avoiding her angry spouse. Then, when the lion house was crowded with visitors, the female leopard ambled across the cage to where her mate lay and began to scratch her back against the bars. The Devil instantly resented this by lifting one of his paws and knocking her down. There was no further attempt at friendliness by Nigger. She leaped at him and they rolled over the floor of the cage, clawing and snarling. The clamor aroused the other animals and the roars of the lions and tigers were soon shaking the building.

George Engleholm, one of the keepers, procured an iron spike and tried to pry the animals apart. His efforts were of no avail and he was joined by three other keepers, similarly armed, but their combined force was futile

For nearly 20 minutes the battle continued. Then the Devil, by a deft flank movement, sank his fangs into Nigger's throat, and a minute later she fell over dead.
